

Native American Women's Creations

Edward-Dean Museum & Gardens

A traveling exhibition from the Riverside Metropolitan Museum Collections

Native American Women's Creations

Edward-Dean Museum & Gardens
A division of Riverside County Economic Development Agency

June 3 - August 25, 2007

Opening Reception
June 3, 2007, 2pm - 4pm, free admission

The Edward-Dean Museum & Gardens
9401 Oak Glen Road
Cherry Valley, CA 92223
(951) 845-2626

www.edward-deanmuseum.org

A traveling exhibition from the Riverside Metropolitan Museum, Native American Women's Creations provides a look into the artistic aspect of creating for the home, tourist trade, and daily life. The exhibition highlights Navajo rugs and quilts, pottery, beadwork, and basketry created by Native American Women.

The Edward-Dean Museum & Gardens
9401 Oak Glen Road
Cherry Valley, CA 92223

Image: "Charlie Wood's Maze" quilt, Margaret Wood (Navajo/Seminole)
Photo by Chase Photography